

English - Planning and Ideas

Week Commencing: 4th May 2020

Year Groups: 5

Hi Year 5!

This week, our focus is upon persuasive writing. I would like you to create a chocolate bar and to write an advert to try to persuade someone to buy it to raise money for charity. You could combine your favourite bars into one. Think about the appearance, texture and flavour. Have fun!

	Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday
Area of Learning	Subject: English LC: Reading Comprehension	Subject: English LC: Can you identify the features of persuasive writing?	Subject: English LC: Can you plan a persuasive piece of writing?	Subject: English LC: Can you write a persuasive piece of writing?	No Lesson
Activity	Starter: Spelling Shed https://play.edshed.com/login Rule: Adverbs of possibility Main activity: Complete the reading comprehension below.	Starter: Spelling Shed https://play.edshed.com/login Main activity: Children to look at the different persuasive writing features in the PowerPoint. Once you have looked at the features, have a go at the identifying which persuasive technique has been used for the adverts. With your adult, talk about why these are effective persuasive pieces of writing.	Starter: Grammar focus: In year 5, we have previously looked at and tried to include modal verbs in our work. What is a modal verb? Have a look at the BBC link below and try the interactive quiz. https://www.bbc.co.uk/bitesize/topics/zwwp8mn/articles/zps4pbk You might want to include modal verbs in your persuasive piece of writing. E.g. You should buy this chocolate because... Main activity: Can you use the planning sheet to record your ideas? Think about a chocolate design. Think about your senses as you label with adjectives (describing words). The features can be remembered in the acronym 'AFOREST'. Could you write an example of each feature in each of the trees to make your own persuasive feature forest? You could also make a bank of adjectives (describing words) to help you to describe your chocolate bar.	Starter: Spelling Shed https://play.edshed.com/login Main activity: Before you start, you might like to ask an adult to see how many features you can remember to quiz yourself before you start writing. Using your planning sheet and top tip sheet, your challenge is to write a persuasive piece of writing about your chocolate, which could be used to advertise your chocolate bar. Use your imagination! Don't forget about modal verbs, You might want to write this or do it on the computer.

■ Australia Should Celebrate the Queen's Birthday Holiday ■

In my opinion, Australia should continue to celebrate the Queen's Birthday holiday.

This is because Australia was colonised by the British, Britain is a major part of Australian culture and Queen Elizabeth is our head of state.

Firstly, Australia was claimed and colonised by the British on the orders of the ancestors of Queen Elizabeth II, back in 1770. If it were not for King George III, Australia, as we know it today, would not exist. The British monarchy played an important role in the colonising of Australia and for this, we should recognise and thank them with a national holiday.

Secondly, Britain is a significant part of Australian culture. Not only did the British first claim Australia but British immigrants are one of the biggest international culture groups in Australia. Because of our British influenced history, many Australians still support and are interested in the monarchy. As our country was founded by and is currently inhabited by many British people, we should continue to celebrate its queen.

Finally, Queen Elizabeth is our head of state. Although she does not rule or visit here often, she appoints the Governor General to govern Australia for her. Queen Elizabeth is the most powerful ruler of Australia (ahead of the Governor General and Prime Minister) and is regularly kept informed about the current affairs of Australia. Just because many people do not like this fact, it is not enough to get rid of the queen, as you cannot simply change rulers of a country because you want to.

In conclusion, it is highly obvious that Australia should continue to celebrate the Queen's Birthday holiday. This is because of the British influence on Australian history, the significant British presence in Australia and because Queen Elizabeth II is our head of state.

Monday comprehension:

1. What is the topic of this persuasive text?

2. Is the author for or against this topic?

3. Which words from the text tell you this?

4. What is the author's purpose for writing this text?

5. Which reasons does the author use to support their opinion?

6. When was Australia claimed by the British?

7. What is the name of the king who ruled when Australia was colonised?

8. Write down a synonym for 'order', 'significant' and 'celebrate'.

9. List three ideas for new national holidays relating to the monarchy, that Australia could celebrate.

10. Do you agree with the author's point of view? Why or why not?

Answers

1. What is the topic of this persuasive text?
The topic of this persuasive text is 'Australia should celebrate the Queen's Birthday holiday'.
2. Is the author for or against this topic?
The author is for this topic.
3. Which words from the text tell you this?
It is my strong opinion that Australia should continue to celebrate the Queen's Birthday holiday.
4. What is the author's purpose for writing this text?
To persuade the reader that Australia should continue to celebrate the Queen's Birthday holiday.
5. Which reasons does the author use to support their opinion?
Australia was colonised by the British, Britain is a major part of Australian culture and because Queen Elizabeth is our head of state.
6. When was Australia claimed by the British?
Australia was claimed by the British in 1770.
7. What is the name of the king who ruled when Australia was colonised?
King George III ruled when Australia was colonised.
8. Write down a synonym for 'order', 'significant' and 'celebrate'.
order - instruct, command, direct significant - important, vital, central, essential celebrate - rejoice, party, acclaim, make merry
9. List three ideas for new national holidays relating to the monarchy, that Australia could celebrate.
Answers will vary.
10. Do you agree with the author's point of view? Why or why not?
Answers will vary.

Tuesday identifying:

A.F.O.R.E.S.T.

Alliteration

Facts

Opinion

Repetition

Emotive language

Statistics

Three (rule of)

Alliteration

This is when more than one word in a row starts with the same letter:

'Tango will make your tastebuds tingle'

Repetition

Repeating a word or phrase.

Emotive language

Language that appeals to your emotions/ your heart.

Facts/Opinion

Coca-cola is the most popular soft drink in the world.

Coca-cola is the most delicious soft drink there is.

Three (rule of)

Using three descriptive word, or repetition x3 e.g.

'Disneyland is the most exciting, wonderful, unbelievable theme park.'

'Delicious pizza, delicious pasta, delicious everything!'

Statistics

Each time you switch on a Lumineux lamp

You'll save 80% of your energy costs

Order with absolute confidence.

Business users can save hundreds of pounds on:

Candles, spirals, halogen, flood, energy saving and many many more only at:

www.meantrade.com

Usually these are stated as numbers or percentages.

Sunshine soap

Sunshine soap is the most beautiful smelling soap in the entire world. 100% of people who have washed with sunshine soap said they would buy it again. You will be squeaky fresh and squeaky clean in no time with sunshine soap!

Above you can see a piece of writing that is from an advert. Can you identify any persuasive techniques?

Can you identify which AFOREST technique is being used?

Advert: Dairy Milk

Text: 'Milky, creamy, yummy'.

Example of:

.....

Advert: Nivea

Text: 'Beauty is caring...celebrate someone special'.

Example of:

.....

Advert: Head and Shoulders

Text: [Removes] '100% visible flakes'.

Example of:

.....

Advert: Government- stop smoking campaign

Text: 'Smoking kills' and 'Smoking clogs the arteries and causes heart attacks and strokes'.

Example of:

Advert: HP sauce

Text: 'No HP, No Happy'.

Example of: Alliteration and

.....

Advert: Carlsberg

Text: 'Probably the best beer in the world'.

Example of:

.....

Advert: Maybelline make up

Text: 'Maybe she's born with it... maybe it's Maybelline'.

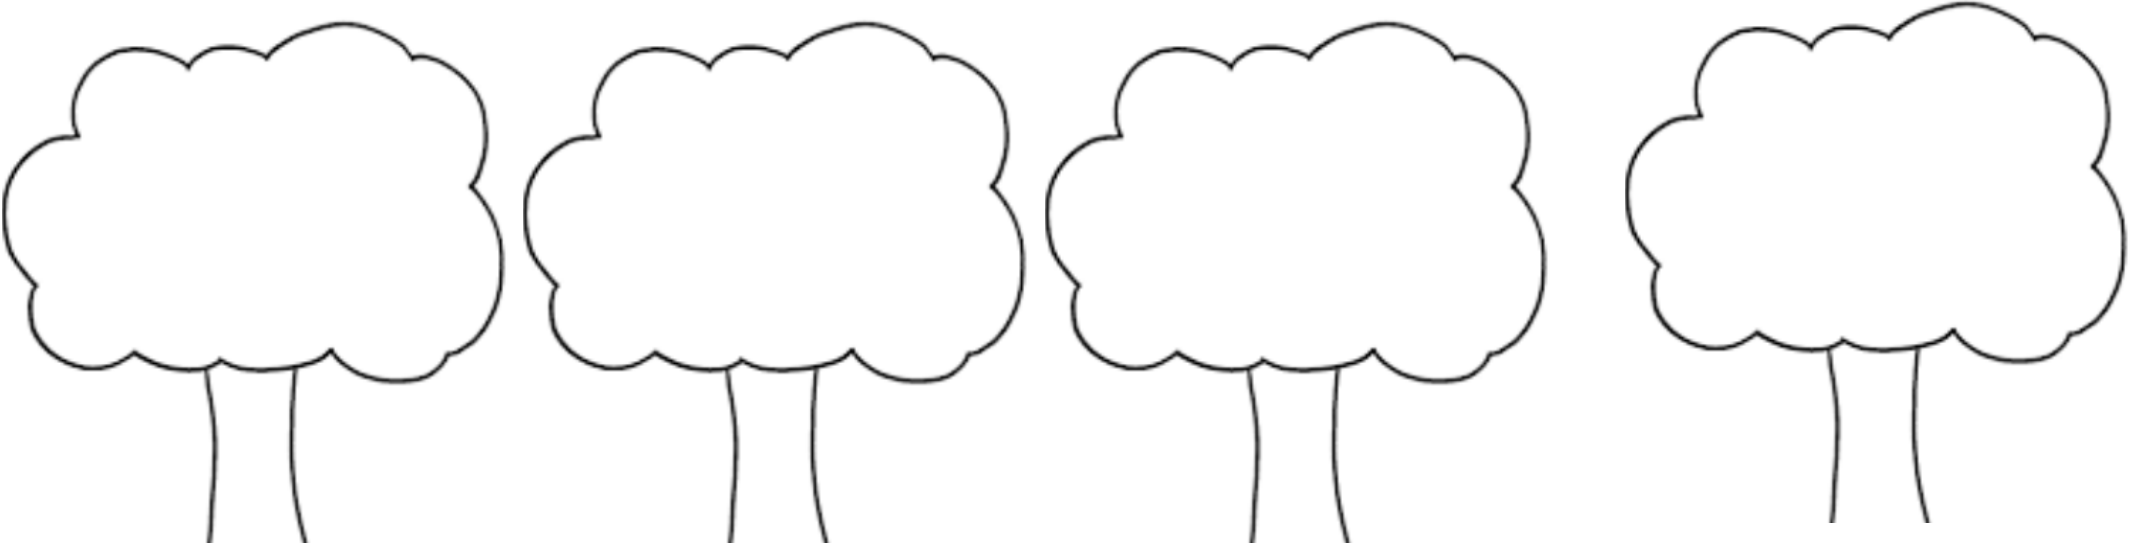

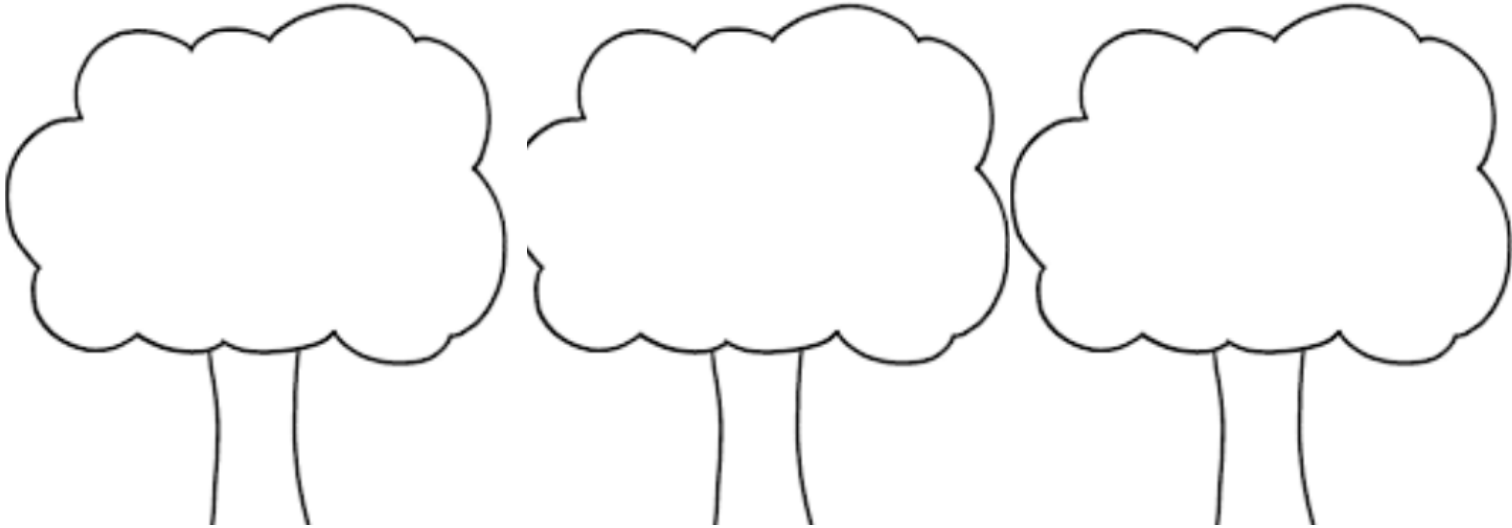

Example of:

Repetition and

.....

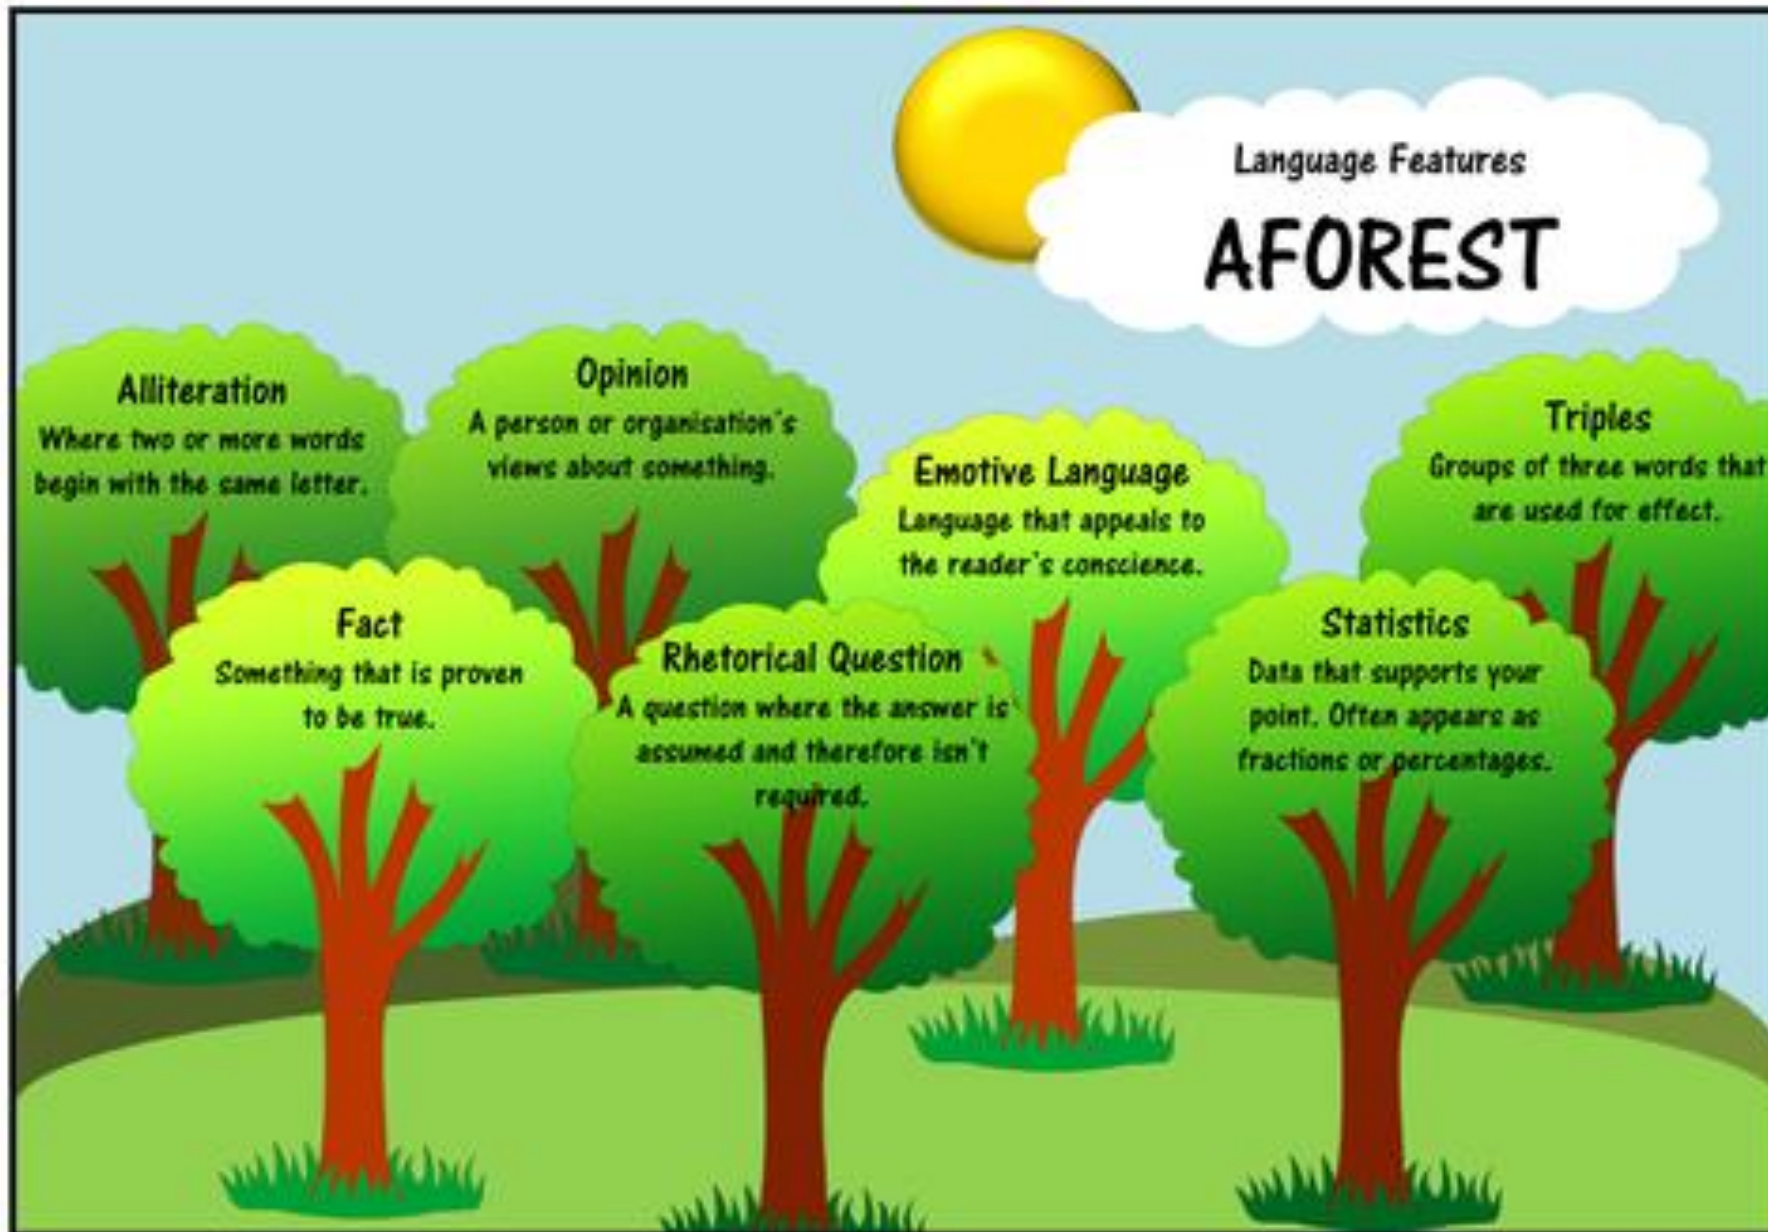

Wednesday planning:

Draw and label your chocolate bar here.

Thursday writing:

You could use this AFOREST persuasive features sheet to help you to persuade people to buy your tasty chocolate.

Friday self assessment:

Here are the features of a persuasion text. Use your coloured pens, pencils or highlighters to identify parts of your text which show each feature. For example, you could colour the 'strong/ emotive adjectives' box in red, then use the same colour to underline all the time adjectives in your text.

	Title shows what the text is about. Often uses "How..." or "Why..."		Rhetorical questions are used.
	Opening paragraph introduces the topic or idea.		Strong/ Emotive adjectives challenge the reader to disagree.
	Cause and effect conjunctions logically link points to supporting details.		Opinion presented as facts .
	Final paragraph (conclusion) links back to the opening.		Ambiguous phrases (e.g. 'probably', 'almost certainly')
	Only one side of the topic is discussed (either for or against the idea).		Present tense verbs.
	Each point is elaborated with detail and examples.

Where can I complete further work?

Twinkl – Subscription service used by schools is offering a free premium service for teachers, parents and children to use whilst schools are closed. Enter the code UKTWINKLHELPS for access to worksheets, powerpoints and interactive games to support all areas of learning.

Classroom Secrets – Free Maths, Reading and Grammar home learning packs and interactive resources for all ages.

BBC Bitesize Primary – Free learning resources available for KSI and KS2 across all subjects.