Activity	Starter 1 Log onto spelling shed and play one of the games in your assignments list. https://play.edshed.com/ Main Task Your task today is to complete a fiction reading comprehension task. Remember, if any of the questions are multiple choice, then don't forget to check all possibilities rather than picking the first answer you believe to be correct. This text is slightly longer than usual so don't forget to read carefully. I have included answers so you can check your work with an adult. If you would like more of a challenge, I have also included a sheet which is a little more difficult. Answers are also included. Main Task This week we are looking at persuasion and by the end of	Starter 1 Log onto spelling shed and play one of the games in your assignments list. https://play.edshed.com/ Starter 2 60 Second Reads. Read the short extract (approx. 60 seconds) and use this to help you answer the questions provided. Main Task Today you are going to complete the remaining part of your plan.	Starter 1 Log onto spelling shed and play one of the games in your assignments list. https://play.edshed.com/ Starter 2 Main Task You will need to use your planning sheet from the Tuesday and Wednesday. Today you are going to write your letter. Think carefully about the language that you are going to use in your letter.

useful for the completion of the task. You will need the reading text along with the answer booklet. I have attached an answer sheet for you to check your answers with an adult. No peeping!	How many others can you think of? Task – Complete the apostrophe for possession and contraction sheet. Main Task You have completed lots of grammar work while you have been away from school. Today, I would like you to apply your grammar skills to the mini quiz. It shouldn't take too long to complete. I have attached the answers so you can check your work with an adult. If there was anything that you found tricky, don't forget to look through your SATs revision books. They are really helpful and give some good examples.	the week, you will have written a persuasive letter. Today, I would like you to look at the letters of complaint attached and look at the language used. What do you notice about the language? Formal language has been used. How are each of the paragraphs introduced? How is the letter introduced? What is included in the final paragraph? Task – In preparation for tomorrow, I would like you to imagine that you have just received a letter from the council that they plan to close Ox Close Primary School to build new properties on the land. Can you make a list of reasons that Ox Close should remain open and to persuade the council to reconsider their plans? Think about all of the positive things about Ox Close? Would these opportunities still be available if you moved school? What about friends? Would you stay together or would you	You need your work completed from yesterday. You should have already made a list of key points on your planning sheet yesterday. Today, you need to think of ways in which you could develop your points/ideas. Eg- Children would need to travel to other schools – Some children might live some distance away from other local schools. They might not have transport to travel to schools some distance away. Think about how you could develop your ideas. I am sure that your ideas are much more creative than ours. You will also need to complete the plan for your introduction and also the closing paragraph. Remember, your closing paragraph is an	How will you begin? How will you introduce your points/ideas? I have attached a sheet to support you with formal vocabulary. Remember, you are trying to persuade the Council to keep Ox Close School Open. Don't forget to share your letters with us by sending to the Y6 mail address.
